

Day 4 – Literacy character descriptions 2

Today you are going to be writing character descriptions for your three main characters. Remember you should have one human character (like Fern) and two animal characters (like Wilbur and Charlotte).

You will need to think about their appearance and personality. It would be great if you could try to link their character to their actions.

Here's Mrs Hale's example for her human character!

