

Day 5 – Literacy story planning

Use the story mountain to help you map out what happens in your story – remember to make it as exciting as possible!

Are your animals going to talk (like Wilbur and Charlotte)? How will this link in with the story? Will it help your main character overcome their problem?

Use this checklist to help you finish your plan.

Adventure Story Checklist
	a title which makes the reader want to read my story
	description of a fantasy setting
	a hero who has a problem to overcome dialogue between the characters
	an ending in which the problem is solved
